

Dewayne Sharp Biography

Special Agent Dewayne Sharp joined the FBI in January 2001 and was assigned to the Chicago Field Office initially to work counterintelligence investigations of intelligence officers from various Asian countries. He was subsequently assigned to economic espionage and technology transfer investigations related to the three Department of Energy laboratories in the Chicago area.

In January 2009, SA Sharp was promoted to Supervisory Special Agent at FBI headquarters in the Counterintelligence Division managing threat country investigations and operations against Asian targets. In June 2011, SSA Sharp transferred to the Counterespionage Section where he investigated and managed the investigations of FBI personnel suspected of spying for foreign countries.

In June 2014 SSA Sharp became the second member of the FBI's Insider Threat Center and currently serves as the Assistant Section Chief. The Center evaluates the FBI's personnel, business processes and critical assets for potential insider threat risk. The Center is also develops technical solutions to support its risk assessment mission.

Prior to the FBI, ASC Sharp served eight years as a US Army officer in multiple assignments around the world. He is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and has a Bachelor's degree in Military History with a minor in Computer Science. He is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Cybersecurity.

