BIOGRAPHY

Jeffrey L. MAILLE

Deputy Director, Insider Threat Office
National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency

Mr. Jeffrey L. Maille currently serves as the Deputy Director, Insider Threat Office at the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA). Previously, he served as the Insider Threat Program Manager and Chief, NGA's Cyber Counterintelligence Division for seven years, where he managed operations concerning external and internal threats directed at NGA personnel, facilities, and information.

Prior to joining NGA, Mr. Maille was assigned as a Department of Defense (DoD) Staff Officer in the Program Management Directorate of the Defense Intelligence Agency's Defense Counterintelligence (CI) and HUMINT Center, formerly the Counterintelligence Field Activity (CIFA), where he served for three years as is the Chief, DoD CI Investigations. He is considered a DoD Subject Matter Expert for CI Investigations and was responsible for all program management activities within his functional area.

Mr. Maille also served honorably for twenty three years in the United States Air Force (USAF). He enlisted in 1979 as an Aircrew Life Support Technician and in 1990 cross trained into the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI) where he served as a Special Agent. Over the span of his career, he has served at multiple facilities around the world to include tours at Loring Air Force Base, ME; Chanute AFB, IL (Instructor Duty; Certified USAF Master Instructor); Hahn Air Base, Germany; Dover Air Force Base, DE; the Presidio of Monterey, CA (Japanese Language Student); Yokota Air Base, Japan; Hickam Air Force Base, HI; and Ramstein Air Base, Germany. In addition, he supported special operations in Spain, Italy, Turkey, Israel, Guam, and South Korea.

Throughout his career, Mr. Maille has served in a number of functions within the CI and Law Enforcement Community to include the Team Leader for a Counter-Narcotics Joint Drug Enforcement Team, a CI Collector, the Chief of Defensive Operations and Protective Service Operations, the Superintendent of a Base Investigative Branch, and as Superintendent of Regional Operations. He finished his military career as the Superintendent of AFOSI's largest investigative unit, Detachment 515 at Ramstein AB, Germany, retiring from the USAF in 2003.

Mr. Maille earned a Bachelor's Degree from Eastern Illinois University and Associate Degrees for Criminal Justice, Survival and Rescue, and Instructor in Technology from the Community College of the Air Force.

His awards include the National Defense Service Medal, the Air Force Meritorious Service Medal, the Air Force Commendation Medal, the Air Force Achievement Medal, the Air Force Organizational Excellence Award, and the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

Mr. Maille and his wife, Petra, have been married for twenty-five years and live in Fredericksburg, Virginia with their two daughters, Sabrina and Melissa. His oldest daughter, Nicole, lives in Iowa.
